Thappalampuliyur is a village situated approx 5 kms away from Thiruvarur, in Tamil Nadu, South India. This village has great historic and spiritual values.

This famous "Tharparanpuliyur" alias "Thappalampuliyur" village was called as "Tharparavanam", "Madhuvanam", and "Devavanam" during Kritha Yugaa, Threthaa Yuagaa and Dwapara Yugaa respectively. In Kalyugaa, this village is called as Vyaagrapuram.

This Village is blessed with two very famous Temples (ie) Sri Nithyakalyani Amman sametha Sri Vyaagrapureeswara Swamy Temple and Sri Bhoomi Neela sametha Sei Neelamani Varadaraja Perumal Temple.

As per historical information Sri Nithyakalyani Amman Sametha Sri Vyaagrapureeswara Swamy Temple, was worshipped by all living creatures like "Mandugam" (Frog) and Vyaagram (Tiger) as well as Maharishi like Tharpara Maharishi.

It is said by Kanchi Maha Periyvaal Sri Sri Jaghadhguru Chandrasekara Swamigal, that Sri Nithyakalyani Amman is comparable to two other famous Sri Nithyakalyani Amman, one at Ujjain in North India and one in a village near Ramanathapuram in South India. The Nithyakalyani Amman in these places are described by the slogaa

"Sivaa Bhavaani rudhraani sankararththa sareerani Nithyam sakalakalyani bhoga mhokshapadaayini".

It is the strong belief of the devotees, that Sri Nithyakalyani Amman Sametha Sri Vyaagrapureeswara Swamy provide immense blessing and fulfills all the wishes and desires of the worshipping devotees, instantaneously.

Sri Nithyakalyani Amman of this temple, is also the "Family Deity" ("Kuladeivam") for so many families, both in India and abroad. These families visit this temple to worship and get blessings.

Some of the special worth mentioning facts associated with this temple are:

- The Sannathi of Lord Shiva is said to be approx. 900 years old.
- This is the only temple in South India which has a separate Sannathi for "Eka Paada Rudhra Moorthy", considered to be an Apoorva moorthy.

- c) Sri Natarajar is in Moolasthanam in this temple, in a separate Sannadhi.
- d) The temple has a separate Sannathi for "Jwara Devar" (providing cure for Fever and other ill health conditions) – little known fact to many devotees.
- e) The temple has a Sannathi for Saptha Kannigas
- f) Unlike common in many temples, there is no separate Navagraha Sannathi in this temple. But there are exclusive sannathis for Surya Bhagavan and for Saneeswara Bhagavan.
- g) Saneeswara Bhagavan Sannathi is east facing which is a speciality of this temple and hence is known as "Anugraha Moorthy". Very few temples has this speciality.
- h) Sri Durgai Amman with four hands situated in this temple is known as "Vaishnavi Durgai Amman" having both "Sangu" and "Chakram" in her two hands.

In addition to this Siva temple in this village, there is yet another famous Vaishnava temple called "Sri Bhoomi Neelaa Sametha Sri Neelamani Varadharaja Perumal" temple. This temple is situated on the western side of the village and very famous. Various festivals like Radha Kalyanam, Sri Rama Navami, Vaikunda Ekaadhasi etc are regularly performed in this temple. A speciality of this 'Perumal Temple' was that this temple, in earlier days, had a temple for 'Lord Maha Ganapathy' on either side of this perumal temple.

It is more than 13 years since the Thiruppani works for these Temples were performed. The structures of both these temples have become very old and some areas are in a dilapidated condition, needing immediate renovation and repairs.

Sri Nithyakalyani Amman Seva Samithi Religious Trust (SNASS Religious Trust) is a trust formed with the main objective of maintenance of these temples and carrying out Nithyappadi Poojas/functions of the temples in Thappalampuliyur. SNASS Religious Trust now has proposed to take up and complete the Thiruppani of both these Temples in about 8 to 10 monthstime, with the support of all Gramavaasis, SNASS members, devotees, like minded public, various organizations as well Government officials. (Please visit our website <http://sites.google.com/site/thappalampuliyur/> to learn more about SNASS Religious Trust).

(Total amount Rupees. 52 Lakhs).
